A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and failing, or other displace-ment, of the pelvic organs. Other symp-toms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnaw-dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness. If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that whi give quicker relief or a more permatent case than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cure. It is the most potent invisorating tonic and strengthening nervine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and con-nal roots found in our forests and con-tains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written envorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy of known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an

to any selfash interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to paim off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but nover equaled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as eandy.

ALLEGED CONFESSIONS. The trial of F ed Jenkins for the murder of William Smith was resumed in Colpeper yesterday morning. The jury retired while witnesses were examined before the court as to alleged confessions by Fred Jenk ns. The court allowed the testimony to go to the jury.

W. E. Fisher stated that he saw Fred Jenkins on the evening after the murder of Smith, and that Jenkins voluntarily made a confession to him that he had killed William Smith, and that Claude Norris gave him (Jenkins) $9, a bottle of whicky and a gun to kill Smith. Fisher said that Jenkins told him that William Seal had told him to make this

James Judd, deputy sheriff of Cul-peper county, was next sworn. He said that on September 17 he heard Fred Jenkins coufess that he had killed Willism Smith, and that he was paid to

The State here rested and the defense called J. J. Miller, who said that he had known Fied Jenkins for years, and that his general reputation was first class for peacefulness, sobriety and honesty, but he was a very timid boy. Robert Hand gave similar testimor, y, as did a number of other witnesses. Engene Willis said that Jenkins was a timid boy, and likely to do what one of a stronger will power told him he must do.

Wise Dodson told the jury that he wise Docson told the july that he heard William Seal say that he certainly would kill William Smith. Charles Sisk gave similar testimony. Robert King said that Seal told him he would kill William Smith for marrying his daughter. William Simpson stated that he also heard Seal say he would kill Smith. Frank Jenkins, father of the accused, said he heard Seal threaten the life of William Smith. Mrs. Liza Willis stated that Seal told her last July that before two months he would kill Bill

Smith. The next witness was the accused, who, though an ignorant boy, told his story in a seemingly simple and honest way. During the testimony of this witness there was a great deal of suppressed excitement in the controom. He said that old man William Seal had ordered him to go to Claude Norris's house and borrow his gun and kill Smith. He got the gun, Seal taking it from him after telling him that if he did not then shoot Smith that he (Seal) would kill him Smith that he (Seal) would kill him (Jenkins). Seal then went to Smith's barn and called Smith from his house. Witness saw Seal shoot and kill Smith, and, and after the shooting, Seal told nlm to go and return the gun and go through the cornfield, and that he (Seal)

ANXIOUS TO BE HANGED. Richard Walton, colored, was hanged in Chicago yesterday for the murder of Mrs. Louise Grant, white, on Septem-

Mrs. Grant was a kindergarten instructor and had for many years man-aged schools of this character in connection with churches. She was an expert and of the highest personal char-

Intending to move from one spartment to another, she had employed Walton to assist in packing some of her furniture. At night Walton, with the intention of stealing some of the valuables which he had noticed in her rooms, climbed through a window and strangled Mrs. Grant while she lay in bed. He gave some of the jewelry to a colored woman, and through this he was traced and finally arrested at Springfield, Ill. He confessed as soon as captured and plead-

Judge Brentano, who passed sentence of death upon the prisoner, was urged y Walton to make the date earlier than December 13. The judge replied:

"I very much regret that the law will not permit me to fix an earlier time."

During his confinement in the county jail Walton repeatedly declared that he was anxious to be hanged as soon as possible, and had made a great show of religious conversion.

NARROW ESCAPE.

John Soley, of Cieveland, Ohio, who murdered his sweetheart, came near being electronted yesterday in spite of the fact that the commutation papers from the governor had been mailed to the warden of the State penitentiary Cleveland Receiving no word the governor Thursday night, execute warden prepared to execute. On second thought he tele Soley. On second thought he tele-phoned the governor and found that the papers had been mailed. The execution was therefore, postponed. The papers were delivered yesterday. They had been held up in the post-office for lack of postage. The papers proved to be a commutation of the death sentence of Siley to life imprisonment.
